

AAHS Clay Target League

The Alexandria Area High School (AAHS) Clay Target Team was developed in 2012 and is a recognized club activity within the Alexandria School District. The team is led by Head Coach Tom Townsend and 16 additional coaches. The team is supported by parent volunteers.

We compete as a team in the Minnesota State High School Clay Target League (MSHSCTL) and operate under their policies and procedures. We participate in the Spring Season.

Students are eligible to participate with the Team if they meet the following criteria:

- Be in grades 7-12 within the ISD 206 school district, and
- Has completed a State Approved DNR Firearm Safety Course, and
- Meets all school activity eligibility requirements, and
- Complies with the AAHS Clay Target League and MSHSCTL's Policies and Procedures.

Season timeframe:

- Registration runs from late February to mid-March
- Practice/Competition is held on Monday evenings from March through June

Registration

- Students must be registered with the MN Clay Target League. This process is done by reaching out to the AAHS Clay Target Coaching Staff at the email listed below.
- Students must also pay the School Activity Fee
